

ZARAGOZA LOGISTICS CENTER / FUNED JOINT SCHOLARSHIP

In March 2009 Zaragoza Logistics Center (ZLC) has signed a joint agreement with FUNED (Fundación Mexicana para la Educación, la Tecnología y la Ciencia, A. C.), with the objective of awarding one joint scholarship for a qualified applicant from Mexico to undertake the MIT-Zaragoza Master of Engineering in Logistics & Supply Chain Management (ZLOG) program in the academic year 2010-2011.

FUNED is a private non profit organization created with the sole purpose of contributing to improve the level of higher education in Mexico. The foundation fulfills its mission by offering complementary financing to Mexican students to help them obtain a masters degree from a reputable university. Through this education they can obtain added knowledge and multicultural vision which they can eventually use to help Mexican organizations to keep pace with the accelerated advance in management, productivity, science and technology of the global economy. <http://www.funed.org.mx>

Coverage

ZLC provides a 30% tuition scholarship for the ZLOG Program, equivalent to €6,450. Furthermore, FUNED grants a "credit-scholarship" covering up to 40% of the total cost of the ZLOG Program, not to exceed $20,000. The amount provided to the scholarship holder will be based on the results of FUNED's financial needs evaluation of the student, his or her repayment capability, and a personal interview.

Eligibility & Requirements

The scholarship can only be awarded only to a student who has been admitted to ZLOG Program through the regular admissions procedure and has been approved by FUNED for a "credit-scholarship".

To be approved for a "credit-scholarship" every candidate must submit evidence of:

- Solid academic credentials
- Acceptance by the university of his choice
- Repayment capability and a guarantor
- Commitment to help the development of Mexico
- Willingness to collaborate in enhancing the penetration of FUNED

Finally, eligible candidates must comply with the following criteria:

- Be a Mexican citizen and reside in Mexico in the moment of applying.
- Be fluent in English (minimum TOEFL score of 105 points in the Internet based test).
- Demonstrate a competitive GMAT or GRE score. Exceptions may be granted to individuals who have demonstrated strong academic achievement in completing a college degree - including some quantitative training - and evidence of advanced verbal and written proficiency in the English language.
- Demonstrate professional excellence in Logistics/Supply Chain Management or exceptional academic achievement (minimum GPA of 3.5 on the scale of 4.0 or equivalent).
- Completion of a four year undergraduate program equivalent to a Bachelor's Degree, with an average grade of minimum 8.

Application Process and Documents
