

ZARAGOZA LOGISTICS CENTER / FUNDACIÓN BECA JOINT SCHOLARSHIP

In April 2009 Zaragoza Logistics Center (ZLC) signed a joint agreement with Fundación Beca (FB) and Lumni Mexico, with the objective of awarding one joint scholarship for a qualified candidate from Latin America to undertake the MIT-Zaragoza Master of Engineering in Logistics & Supply Chain Management (ZLOG) program in the academic year 2010-2011.

Fundación Beca (FB) is a private, non-profit organization, which contributes to Latin America's development by supporting talented young people to undertake higher education overseas. They provide help for education in universities of great worldwide prestige, through; scholarships, loans for students without a guarantor, an employment bureau system (BEST) that links alumni to important companies interested in hiring talented young people in specific areas, and a voluntary work system that students perform in social institutions when they come back. Their mission is to offer postgraduate studies to young people with talent within the fields of science, economy, politics and culture in order to help towards the success of the development of Latin America. <http://www.fundacionbeca.org>

Lumni Mexico is a corporation that finances the postgraduate studies of students with a good professional and academic potential and supports their professional careers by offering consultancy, workshops, conferences, and an employment exchange. Lumni Mexico and FB have made an alliance that will allow students to obtain a complementary funding to their scholarship. <http://www.lumni.com.mx/>

Coverage

ZLC provides a 40% tuition scholarship for the ZLOG Program, equivalent to €8,600 and FB grants $800 for a flight ticket and an insurance to cover medical expenses (not pharmaceutical). Finally Lumni will support the candidate with an additional funding of up to $150,000 MXP (for Mexican students only) in return of a percentage of the students income during a fixed time period. The funding conditions are to be agreed on between the candidate and Lumni.

Eligibility & Requirements

The scholarship can only be awarded only to a student who has been admitted to ZLOG Program through the regular admissions procedure. Furthermore, the applicants should display exceptional academic achievement and distinctive personal accomplishment in addition to an interest in pursuing a career in Logistics/Supply Chain Management.

Finally, eligible candidates must comply with the following criteria:

- Be a national and resident of one of the following Latin-American countries: Ecuador, Guatemala, Peru, Bolivia, Panama, Colombia, Venezuela, Haiti, Cuba, Puerto Rico, Brazil, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Argentina, Chile, Costa Rica, Uruguay.
