ZLOG Class of 2018 - 2019 Heraldo & MIT- Zaragoza Master Scholarship

Presentation and objectives

Zaragoza Logistics Center \(ZLC\) and Heraldo de Aragón are awarding one full tuition scholarship for a qualified applicant from the region of Aragón, Spain, to undertake the MIT-Zaragoza Master of Engineering in Logistics and Supply Chain Management (ZLOG) program in the academic year 2018 - 2019. Through this scholarship, the both parties hope to attract outstanding future leaders from Aragón who can make a vital contribution to the field of Logistics and Supply Chain Management.

Heraldo de Aragón is a Spanish newspaper that was founded in Zaragoza in 1895. It gives general information about the news on a regional, national and international level although it is especially focused on the region of Aragón.

The company Heraldo de Aragón Editora Digital, S.L.U. not only controls the Heraldo de Aragón newspaper but also many other media such as Heraldo de Soria, Qué! Aragón, ADM, Aragón, ZTV (Zaragoza TV), and many more. It's wide experience and understanding of the society of Aragón has converted it into one of the main suppliers of news of the region.

Zaragoza Logistics Center (ZLC) is a research institute established by the Government of Aragon in Spain in partnership with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the University of Zaragoza. Founded in 2003, the ZLC campus is located in the heart of PLAZA, the largest logistics park in the southwest of Europe that serves as a working laboratory to transfer new knowledge and working practices. ZLC mission is to create an international center of excellence for research and education in logistics and SCM that actively engages with industry and the public sector to develop and disseminate knowledge. ZLC offers a master's degree modeled on the MIT's Supply Chain Management (SCM) program and that offers the unique combination of a world-class supply chain degree taught in a truly global setting: the Master of Engineering in Logistics and Supply Chain Management (ZLOG) program.
